Tobias Brunner is a Swiss artist and designer from Zurich, whose work balances clarity and contemplation. He graduated with honours from the renowned University of Arts ECAL in Lausanne. After working and teaching in cities like New York, Los Angeles, Paris, and Hong Kong, he founded his own studio, Bureau Brunner, in 2017.

For Tobias, art is not a monologue but a conversation—where the viewer's response is as vital as the work itself. By creating with intention yet restraint, he leaves room for silence, for questions, for resonance. His work becomes an invitation—to reflect, to respond, to imagine. Creativity, for him, is a language of connection, a quiet force that brings people into dialogue with the world and with themselves.
